

ABOUT US

CashPositive was founded in July 2009 by Greg McCurdy. Greg is from the Sunshine Coast in Queensland.

Greg spent nearly 5 years working as a traditional financial adviser before growing more and more frustrated with the lack of independence and cowboy sales culture inherent in the financial planning industry.

Greg decided to grab the bull by the horns and setup shop as an independent financial adviser. CashPositive was born as a result.

Greg has now helped a number of clients get their cash flow in order so can live the life they always dreamed of.

This is achieved using a fee for service model with total independence from big corporates and dealer groups.
